

Mauldin, South Carolina

ADDRESS | 1520 Old Stage Mauldin, SC 29662

START OF OPERATIONS | The manufacturing facility was built in 1960. Originally home to Trylon Chemical Company, it was sold to Emery Industries, a Cincinnati-based chemical manufacturer in the mid-1960s. Henkel bought the company in 1989 and operated it until acquired by Cognis in 1999. BASF acquired Cognis in 2010.

SITE MANAGER | Gerald Murphy

Product uses:

There are more than 150 products made at the site, including:

- Surfactants and co-surfactants
- Specialty esters
- Proprietary blends

Community Relations

This site is an active member of the Mauldin community and supports a wide range of initiatives.

Economic Impact

- Payment of over $560,000 in local property taxes*
- Capital investment of $6.6 million*
- Payroll and benefits $11.9 million*

Year-end 2023 data*

NUMBER OF BUILDINGS

Three plants

NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES

Employees | 86
(excludes GEN/GES)

CONTACT INFORMATION

(For media inquiries only)

SEAN ELLIS
BASF Corporation
8404 River Road
Geismar, LA 70734
(225) 339-7485
E-mail: sean.ellis@basf.com